

FREEDOM IN MIND, FAITH IN WORDS AND PRIDE IN OUR SOULS

The day of pride and glory for every Indian, the 73rd Independence Day of our nation was commemorated with great zeal and enthusiasm at Lancer's Convent School on 14th August, 2019. The cultural program started with great enthusiasm and respect. The spirit of freedom and nationalism was well exhibited by the students through a spectrum of patriotic orchestra among the four houses of the school. The fusion of songs reverberated the environment and infused every young heart with a feeling of patriotism towards our mother land.

The Honorable Principal Ms. Latesh Chaudhary addressed and congratulated the students for their outstanding performance with which they showcased the spirit of freedom through vibrant colors. The Principal infused the students through her motivating words the true spirit of Independence. She emphasized that being independent is all about the feeling of being responsible for your actions and deeds. She further added that students must continuously strive towards inner happiness and work towards becoming a good human being first. Everything else would then will fall into place.

The program later concluded with the principal unfurling the tricolor flag. All in unison sang the National Anthem and expressed the joy of freedom with a pledge to initiate the change by improving themselves and making the country one of the biggest examples of humanity, diversity, unity, endurance, and capacity.
